Generalized or non responsive statements may delay the application longer. In order to ensure that all documentation is kept with your file, we ask that all documents be submitted by you directly in one single consignment. If confidentiality is an issue with third party documents (such as those from the petitioner) you may submit them in a sealed envelope.

When you submit this information, you will also need to include the following:

- ~~Passport (must be valid for six months at the time of application).~~
- Copy or Original DS-160 Confirmation page.
- Complete I-797, I-129 (Petition for a Non-Immigrant visa) form and Labor Condition Application.
- This letter.

Incorrect phone numbers, out-of-date contact information or inadequate photographs may result in delays. Please help us to process your case quickly by furnishing complete and accurate information.

You may submit the documents by the following method:

- A. You may appear for an interview with a consular officer on any Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Please bring this letter with you, and DO NOT make a new appointment.
- B. You may submit the additional documents via drop box using VFS Services in Chennai, Bangalore, Hyderabad and Kochi.

You may find current addresses at the following Web address:
